Better Outreach Training Course - Saturday Daytime

Fiona Lewis from The Media Trust will be running a training course on how we can improve our outreach. This is an area where many Unitarian Groups can improve. Fiona will lead us through practical ideas and tips to ensure we can be better at this vital task. Uni-coms is very grateful to The Hibbert Trust and the Visibility Strategy Group for helping to fund this training. If you wish to attend this training and not the other events over the weekend, you can for just £14 (including lunch).

3 Recipes for a Successful Unitarian Community - Friday Evening

The session will look at three successful Unitarian Groups - Bridport, Lewes and Billingshurst. All of which have created an active energetic Unitarian Community with different approaches. After a report from each group there will be a discussion on how alternative approaches could provide success and relevance to other Unitarian groups in our changing world.

How to create good posters and images - Saturday Evening

James Barry will led a session on what makes a good Unitarian poster. Included will be tips on how to use good images and what you should include and what can be left out.

Booking

If you wish to attend either the whole weekend or just the Outreach training on the Saturday, you will need to call the Nightingale Centre on 01298 871218. Prices for the whole weekend start at £108. If you are just attending the Outreach Training the cost is £14. This could be the best investment your congregation makes this year!
